The Visa Price Protection program helps you get the best price you can find on most products you buy with your eligible card with this benefit. Simply pay for the entire cost of the product with your eligible card and if, within 30 days of the date you purchased the product, you see either a printed advertisement or non-auction internet advertisement for the same product (same model number and same model year) by the same manufacturer, in the same market*, for a lower price, we will refund you the difference, up to the benefit amount per item (and per account per twelve month period).

*Same market is defined as same country and within 100 kilometers of point of purchase. For the US, it will mean the 48 contiguous states. Alaska, Hawaii and other US territories will be treated separately.
Visa Infinite. Price Protection

There is a maximum of 4 claims on any one type of item per member per twelve-month period. Advertisements must be published or posted after the date you purchase your product with your eligible card to qualify for Visa Price Protection coverage. Coverage automatically ends 30 days after the date you purchase the product. No registration is necessary.

All claims must be initiated within 4 calendar days of discovery of a printed advertisement or non-auction internet advertisement showing the lower price. This coverage is secondary, over and above any amount due from any valid merchant lowest price guarantee.

Products eligible for coverage
Subject to the exclusions below, new consumer products, not intended for commercial or professional use or purchased for resale, paid for entirely with your eligible card whether for your own use or given as a gift, qualify for the Visa Price Protection program.

Important definitions
Administrator: Visa Claims Administrator; Maipú 255, Piso 17 – C1084ABE, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

Auction: An Internet site where items are sold through price bids, price quotes, or where prices fluctuate based on the number of people purchasing, or interested in purchasing, a product. This includes both sites where people compete against one another for an item(s) by bidding up the price and where the price decreases as the number of people purchasing the product increases.

Eligible card: Means any international Visa credit card.

Non-auction internet advertisements: Advertisements posted on the Internet, by a non-auction internet merchant with a valid tax identification number. The advertisement must have been posted within 30 days after the date you purchased the product and must be for the identical item (same make, model number, and same model year). The printed version of the Internet advertisement must include the merchant’s internet address and customer service telephone number, as well as the item including model number, sale price and date of publication.

Price: Price refers to the amount paid for the product exclusive of shipping, handling, tax, and other like charges.

Printed advertisements: Advertisements appearing in a newspaper, magazine, store circular, or catalog which state the authorized dealer or store name, item (including make, model number), and sale price. The advertisement must have been published within 30 days after the date you purchased the product and must be for the identical item (same make, model number, and same model year).

Store: Means the same store location where the product was originally purchased, not including other stores or properties in the chain.

You, your, or cardholder: Means an individual with an open international Visa credit card account in good standing.

We, us and our: Means Chartis, Inc.

What is not covered
The Visa Price Protection program does not apply to:

• Any products purchased from an Internet site whose primary purpose is not the sale of merchandise.
• Products purchased for commercial use, professional use, or resale;
• Merchandise for which claims have not been initiated within 4 calendar days of discovery of an internet site advertising the lower price or publishing of a printed advertisement showing a lower price;
• Used, antique, recycled, previously owned, rebuilt, or remanufactured items, whether or not you knew the items were used, antique, recycled, previously owned, rebuilt, or remanufactured;
• Customized, unique and one of a kind items;
• Jewelry, collectibles, art, antiques, special order, or rare one-of-a-kind items;
• Layaway items; items returned to any store;

Important notice

The description of these programs and benefits is only a tool for guidance on coverage for certain cardholders in Latin America and the Caribbean and is updated to April 2015. Please check with your Visa representative the validity of this information before communicating such benefits to customers and/or cardholders. Cardholders should consult their issuer to verify that coverage applies to their Visa card. These benefits only apply to Visa cards with international use capability.

This document is a summary of the policy intended to be distributed in full to cardholders. If a Visa issuer uses excerpts or portions of this material for distribution to cardholders, it does so at its own risk.

These descriptions are not guarantee policies. Described insurances are subject to terms and conditions and include certain restrictions, limitations and exclusions, and all coverages are subject to change or cancellation without notice.

Services and insurance coverage are provided by third parties. Visa is not an insurance company. The detail of all the provisions concerning the insurance plans is detailed in the policies. If there is any difference between the descriptions in this document and the policy signed by the cardholder at the local level, the policy in force locally will govern (in the jurisdiction where the Visa card was issued).

It is the sole responsibility of the issuer to ensure that its card program, customer agreement, card benefits and features, and other disclosures and issuer practices are in full compliance with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations and other legal requirements. Issuers should review the card benefits program with their legal counsel to ensure that the card benefits program and disclosures and customer agreements related to such card benefits or features, comply with all applicable legal requirements. Visa makes no representations or warranties as to the information contained herein. This material does not constitute legal advice or opinion.

Coverage and benefits provided by this program, including any such programs provided by insurance company affiliates of AIG and AXA, shall be null and void if they violate U.S. economic or trade sanctions such as, but not limited to, the sanctions administered and enforced by the Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) of the U.S. Treasury Department.

Benefit amounts are identified in US Dollars. Payment of claims will be made in local currency where required by law, with the official Foreign Exchange Rate published on the date the claim is paid.
